

Medigap Policies Compared

Medigap policies are designed to fill the “gaps” in health insurance provided under original Medicare, Parts A and B. These supplemental policies must provide standardized coverage as specified by the federal government.

The following tables compare and contrast the major components of the different policies. Not all policies are available in all states. The policies shown are not available to residents of the states of Massachusetts, Minnesota, or Wisconsin; there are separate standardized policies for residents of those states.

<sup>1</sup> Through May 31, 2010, 12 standardized Medigap policies could be sold, identified as plans A, B, C, D, E, F, G, H, I, J, K, and L. Effective June 1, 2010, plans E, H, I, and J could no longer be sold, and new plans N and M were added. Individuals who purchased a plan E, H, I, or J before June 1, 2010, may keep those plans.

<sup>2</sup> Beginning January 1, 2020, Medigap plans sold to those new to Medicare were no longer allowed to cover the Part B deductible. Thus, Plans C and F (including the high deductible version of Plan F) could no longer be sold to people new to Medicare as of that date. An individual who already had one of these plans, or who was covered by one of these plans prior to January 1, 2020, will be allowed to keep the plan. Someone eligible for Medicare before January 1, 2020, but who had not yet enrolled, may still be able to buy one of these plans. People new to Medicare on or after January 1, 2020, have the right to buy Plans D and G instead of Plans C and F.

<sup>3</sup> Plans F and G have two options: (1) a standard option and (2) in some states, a “high deductible” option, with a 2025 deductible of $2,870.00.

<sup>4</sup> In 2025, Plan K has an annual out-of-pocket limit of $7,220.00; Plan L has an annual out-of-pocket limit of $3,610.00.
